Stunning Estate On Mecox Bay

Water Mill. Cross an exquisite yacht with an extraordinary estate and you might find yourself with this most incredible of properties with long views down Calf's Creek, across Mecox Bay to the ocean beyond. Poised on a grassy acre, along 220+/- ft. of bulkheaded waterfront, a magnificent 7,000 SF+/-, 7+ bedroom bayside home of recent vintage, since completely rebuilt by renown Lettieri Construction, is awaiting its next, fortunate owner. A double-height foyer leads to multiple living areas under beautiful coffered ceilings which include a great room with fireplace, dining area, adjacent den/media room and a custom gourmet kitchen with breakfast area warmed by its own fireplace. Ground floor guest suites flank the north and south ends of the house including one opening to the pool area. Series of French doors allow access from most rooms to the grounds outside. Upstairs, begin and end your days in the inspired master wing offering its own sitting area, separate his and hers walk in closets and a private balcony that connects to a luxurious spa like bathroom that includes multi jet steam shower, water closet with bidet and jacuzzi. Four additional guest bedrooms with baths ensuete, including two with private balconies, complete the second floor. Outside opportunities are magical. Covered and uncovered porches allow ample room to kick back and relax as you look out across a sea of verdant lawn to the heated Gunite pool with spa serviced by a waterside pool house enhanced by cabana kitchen, full bath and separate napping room. The dock accommodates multiple watercraft from which you can motor, sail or paddle across Mecox Bay to the pristine beaches of Bridgehampton and Water Mill. Beautiful views, resort like accommodations and countless amenities define this ultimate waterfront property available for your preview today.
