Dreams of Authentic Hampton Country in Sagaponack South

Sagaponack. You've always dreamt about that expansive, 4-acre compound, awash in sea breezes, you'd buy in Sagaponack just a bike ride to ocean beaches. You're not attracted to all those new constructions but instead want something more like the sprawling, authentic properties that dotted the Hamptons landscape in your youth. Hopefully the main house would have the soaring ceilings and large open spaces connected by antique brick and vintage wood flooring reminiscent of a barn but of course updated with today's amenities. Naturally, you'd want a master wing sequestered from the rest of the bedrooms in which you would begin and end your days. Wouldn't it be nice too if it had a media room to enjoy your favorite movies while sipping a glass of wine? Certainly, you imagine the languorous lunches and intimate moonlit dinners, all prepared in a great country kitchen, that you'll enjoy in the dining room or beneath the wisteria covered trellis overlooking the specimen trees, bursts of colorful flowers and a sea of lawn enhanced by a fresh water lily pond. And naturally you'd expect a heated Gunite pool and tennis court both serviced by its own barn like cabana with full gym. And since weekends for you mean being surrounded by your friends, didn't your wish list include a 2,800 SF +/-, 6-bedroom guest house offering living room with fireplace, full kitchen and dining room? A separate carriage house for all the toys and an old chicken coop converted into an office where you could get some work done would be amazing too. Well...I just happen to have one if you're still in the market. Better hurry though as the price was just reduced to an eye-catching number and besides, there aren't any other 4 acre compounds like this in what has become the nexus of the Hampton experience hanging around at the moment. Dreams can come true if you contact me soon enough to arrange your own private tour.
