Title: Dan's Power Brokers Work Hard, Play Harder

2006_06_powerbrokers.gif Those trusty list-makers at Dan's Magazine Hampton Style are at it again, this time rounding up the most powerful real estate brokers on the East End. It's an alphabetical listing, but the egalitarianism is subverted by Harald Grant, Andrea Ackerman, Gary DePersia and Lori Barbaria, four standouts who get their own profiles, complete with photo. The featured brokers are pictured doing what they do best (when they're not inking multi-million dollar deals, of course): lounging in a hammock, chilling by the pool in a crisp button-down, and rocking on the front porch. The rest of the all-powerful, but hammock-less, list, after the jump.
