RETREAT TO EAST HAMPTON'S NORTHWEST WOODS ON 5 ACRES WITH TENNIS

East Hampton. In the quiet heart of East Hampton's Northwest Woods, this Barry Brown-designed sanctuary stands like a poem etched into the landscape, blending the best of contemporary living with the raw beauty of nature. Built in 1995, the 3,400-square-foot home stretches across five acres of verdant land, offering a sense of solitude that's hard to find, yet minutes from the pulse of East Hampton Village, Sag Harbor, and the untouched shores of Northwest Harbor. With five bedrooms, four full baths, and a half bath, the home is made for comfort and ease. The primary suite, tucked on the first floor, welcomes you with a quiet simplicity, while a separate wing houses two more bedrooms sharing a bath. Upstairs, two additional bedrooms and a lofted sitting area provide privacy, space, and sunlight. In the heart of the home, light floods the open living area, where vaulted ceilings rise high, a wood-burning fireplace adds warmth, and the broad deck invites you to step outside and feel the world slow down. The flow between the kitchen, dining, and living room is seamless, designed for evenings of conversation and laughter. Outside, the grounds offer even more—a private tennis court, a heated 40-foot pool, and lush, mature landscaping that makes you feel as though you've escaped into a hidden world. The finished lower level extends your space for whatever you need—a gym, a game room, or a quiet corner to retreat. And yet, you're never far from life. Four miles to East Hampton Village, three miles to Sag Harbor, where the finest dining, shopping, and marinas await. With proximity to quiet beauty of Cedar Point Park and over 600 acres of reserve land, the opportunity to breathe in peace is endless. This is more than a home; it's a chance to claim your piece of paradise. The possibilities are boundless—come see for yourself. Schedule your private tour today, and let this estate write its next chapter with you. WEB# 915261
